

Highland Mary – Bampton Hankie

This is a jigging or side-step and half-hey dance with many variants in the chorus, where the side steps can be replaced by other motions such as “pram pushing”. The exact moves do not matter a lot as long as the timing and general direction are consistent.

Figures are the same as for Bonny Green Garters.

Chorus:

Face up. Side step left, then side step right.

Half hey.

Face down. Side step left, then side step right.

Half hey back to place.
